High Swinklebank Farm is a family run working hill sheep farm near the head of the beautifully unspoilt and quiet Longsleddale Valley.

The valley is ideal for those who like a gentle stroll or for more adventurous walkers there are uninterrupted views from the fell tops into 7 different valleys.

Longsleddale is situated 4 miles north of the old market town of Kendal. Windermere and the main lakes are within easy driving distance along with lots of visitor attractions. Also The Yorkshire Dales and Scottish Borders are not too far away.

The cottage is a stone barn conversion inspected annually by the English Tourist Board. It is completely self-contained with ample parking adjacent to the cottage and there is a garden in front of the cottage which visitors are welcome to use. The interior comprises living room, well fitted kitchen, 2 bedrooms—1 double and 1 with bunks and a shower room. There is heating and fitted carpets throughout.

All linen is included and there is a cot available, if required. Electricity is by a £1 coin meter. Water is from a private supply which is annually tested by the Local Authority.

Children are welcome and a dog is acceptable by arrangement.

Cleanliness and personal attention are assured.
